

This is a 1 day course for those that have achieved the CCNSG Passport and are managers, supervisors or have a key role in the correct implementation of health and safety on sites.

Legislation and general Health and Safety aspects.

- Planning for safety:

- Construction Regulations, specifically the CDM Regulations (The Construction (Design & Management) Regulations 2007)
- Risk Assessments from a supervisor perspective
- A hands on exercise on “Planning for safety”

- Communicating safety effectively

- Toolbox talks
- Achieving standards for safety and how to measure whether they are successful?
- Getting your message across

- Reviewing the Health and Safety Process

- Controls that can reduce risks
- Create a new risk assessment
- Safety monitoring